Me and Mike

If each person in the United States buys but one dollars worth of war stamps, the aggregate amount will permit the building of the SHANGRI-LA, the mystery ship which will be used in bombing Tokyo. Let the folk of Grenada and Grenada County do and OVERdo their part.

We do not feel that we are a newspaper this week—just a circular.

Government is a funny thing, a man who can not pass the examination to be janitor is made postmaster, while a man who stood No. 1 in the janitor's examination was rejected and a colored man placed on the job.

Abernethy will soon be here. I imagine he has his sharp knife with him to cut some of Ford's pets from the succulent teats.

Howard Cheek brought me some tumble bugs recently.

From these little jars placed in convenient places, C. C. Hamby, Adjutant of the American Legion here in Grenada, has picked up enough pennies, nickles and dimes to send 1,000 packages of cigarettes to each of the following places: North Africa, Pantelleria, and New Georgia. The tobacco companies, the army officers and the Legion see that the goods get there.

Tobe Isenberg suggested that Greer put up a gold star in his place in memory of Tom Neely.

Aint they sweet.

Hear Dennis Murphree tomorrow afternoon (Friday afternoon) in the public square. But vote for Mike Conner.

Showing that I read the GCW, I see from the column of my favorite correspondent that it's Lt. Col. Conant now. Congratulations, Colonel.

Faulty leadership is the cause of the acting up of the colored troops. It is axiomatic that the commander, whether he be the corporal of a squad or the general of the armies, is responsible for the conduct of his troops.

It would be too bad if the people of Duck Hill had to go armed, or if they had to call upon the governor of the state for state troops for their protection. It would be a lot easier for someone capable of enforcing discipline be placed in command of unruly troops.

Favorite correspondent has taken to the air, having secured a position at the air base, from which place we hope she will continue her column, "Just For Fun."

You customers are not only keeping Horn out of devilment, but keeping me out of devilment—more than I bargained for. You actually have me working.

Dear Mr. Tommy and "Miss" Ruth: don't forget when you were poor working people that I helped you many years with your bean shelling; don't forrget Mike Conner; and forget the sales tax, for you do not have to pay any now.

Judges McKibben and Boushe do not know whether the cause of their nomination without opposition was due to their popularity or to the fact that nobody else wanted the jobs. The same applies to the other JP's and constables.

What is the color of Uncle Sam's drawers? Nobody knows but Pearl Harbor, for she caught Uncle with his breeches down.

I know a fellow who will make a bet that Mike Conner leads the ticket in the State.

A good many folks said I made a fine introduction of Mike Conner. Anyway, I did not have to take anything back, and anyway the people came to hear him, not me.

Soldier Paul Brown of Uncle Sam's army has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Harry Brown.

Even his worst enemy can say that Conner broke a six-weeks drought last Tuesday and that, four years ago, he brought a real season when he came to Grenada.

Little Miss Helen Salmon, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Salmon and Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, has returned to Grenada, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kavanaugh in Winona.

I have been lecturing Howdydo Adams a good deal here lately. A man does not have to see EVERYTHING.

W. W. Odom To Graduate From FBI Saturday

Mr. Willard W. Odom, Marshal of the City of Grenada, will be among the 38 law-enforcement officials who will be graduated from the 22nd Session of the National Police Academy on Saturday, July 17th, according to infomation received from Hon. J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI.

The intention of this course is to prepare the men who attend to return to their local communities and, in turn, communicate the information received to the other law-enforcement officers in their respective communities.

No doubt, Mr. Odom will be back on his job as City Marshal—filled during his absence by "Pet" Ray—during the early part of next week.

Just For Fun

(by Favorite Correspondent)

People are talking about Col. Jenkin's tal son . . .and are wondering whether he has to stoop to go thru an ordinary door.

After spending a Sunday afternoon at Camp, I am convinced that Mr. the editor is right about the overworking of the stork these days. The average seems to be about four out of five..

To skip to the Air Base, it is Capt. Allison now. Travis received the second silver bar this Tuesday.

This is not strictly connected with Camp McCain, but it is with the Army. Elizabeth Rose is taking a little vacation, you know her,she is the pretty blonde down at Corner Drug, and I beleive that there is a Pfc connected with the story. However, the last time that I saw her, she was with a Lt. at Camp.

After the reception by the Guards such as you sometimes receive at Camp McCain, it is very soothing to enter thru the Air Base, and be very courteously interviewed in a military fashion, instead of having some Pfc yell, sneer, and threaten you. That's about the first complaint that I have made about the men or service at the Camp, but the situation is becoming too obnoxious to overlook.

It must be wonderful to be a soldier down in the ranks and not have to worry at all. (No repercussions, please). They surely seem a happy lot and seem to have taken over every house in town. They're sitting on almost every porch in town, and you see the "Camp McCain hug" on every little side street.

Now with second lieutenants, it's different. They have to be on their guard and dignity all the time. And at the Air Base, there is an awful lot of dignity walking the streets. Never have I seen so many gold and silver bars using their feet instead of government transportation.

Not muc actual dirt this week, but people are being unusually good these days. Maybe they are just on their dignity in front of me. But I will sneak up behind them next week.

Tom Bailey and Two Other Candidates Speak Here

Following brief announcements of the candidacies of John Lumpkin and C. . Hamilton, each of whom is a candidate for Lieutenant governor, Hon. Tom Bailey of Meridian, making his second bid for the office of governor, and introduced by E. Underwood, addressed a fair size crowd in the square Wednesday night after he had spoken to the people of Holcomb that afternoon.

Mr. Bailey has to his credit a long number of years in the lower House where, at one time, he was speaker of the House. He was quite modest in his claims, but most earnest in his desire to serve Mississippi as its governor.

He made a good speech for Conner while Conner, lasa week, made a good speech for Bailey.

T. J. Lowry and Five Others Spoke Here Saturday

The people of Grenada were privileged to listen to six candidates in the square Saturday afternoon, where Mr. Hurd Horton acted as Master of Ceremonies. The pincipal speaker—or, rather, the speaker seeking reelection to the most important office—was Hon. T. J. Lowry, member of the State Highway Commission. Mr. Jack B. Carlisle, candidate for District Attorney also spoke, giving his record and his endorsements.

Messrs D. F. Hankins and W. A. Winter, candidates for the Floater Representativeship from Grenada and Montgomery counties lead off.

Following them, Messrs. James Moore of Oakland, and H. B. Vanderburg, of Water Valley, seeking the Senatorial post from the 28th Senatorial District presented their claims.

Mr. Lowry presented what he called a report to the stockholders, beginning with his work as Trustee of the State Penitentiary system, and going into his four years work as member of the State Highway Commission from the Northern District. During the latter part of his speech he told his tale about the Cain Creek bridge, stating that it was the responsibility of the county, not of the Highway Commission.

The speakers were well recived and accorded a respectful hearing.

Abernethy's Office to Remain Open During Recess

Congressman Tom Abernethy writes that, even if the Congress is adjourned, his office force wil remain in Washington to take up matters with the department as usual, and that he will be in daily contact with his office.

Pfc. Vance Graduates at Keesler Field

The Army Air Forces Technical Training Command today announced the graduation of Pfc Doyle C. Vance from the B-24 Liberator bomber mecanics school at Keesler Field.

Pvt. Vance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vance, Rt. 1, Holcomb, Miss., has just completed the intensive 17-week course of training in all types of B-24 maintenance, and is now ready for active line duty wherever the huge bombers are operating.

John Bradley Opens New Place

The Grenada News and Novelty Company, under the ownership of John Bradley has opened in the south part of the Moody Building on Main Street.

This firm will handle newspapers, magazines, books, novelties and personal stationery for soldiers and civilians.

It should succed, for the writer noted that at least four such places seemed to thrive in Biloxi.

Helping In The Meat Shortage

On Thursday night, Matt Cooley's sow at the county jail gave birth to 21 pigs, 18 of which were still alive Friday morning.

She must have read of the meat shortage.

If Mike Conner had not placed Mississipi on a firm business basis, homestead exemption would not be current in this State. Why the homestead owners in Beat Two are paying little, if any more taxes than they did fifty years ago.

Mike Conner freely admits that he has lost many races, but he has always kept the faith. He has not tried to enter office on the strength of promises impossible of fulfillment.

I do not claim that Mike Conner is perfect, for I know he is not, but I believe he will make Mississippi a good Governor, and that Mississippi, with Conner as the next Governor, will experience sixteen continuous years of good government.

I reckon Tom Neely will have to close his restaurant every other day so he can keep up with his moon playing.

Buster Clanton, Floyd Theisman and Lynn Rose, all of Ole Miss, visited their homes this past week-end.

Mrs. E. G. Stockard is visiting her son, Clyde, and wife in Texas this week. She left Saturday.

Service On The Home Front

In this issue, we are running the first of a series of advertisements for the Standard Oil Company, which we commend to the special attention of our readers.

These are unique, in that they make no mention of Standard Oil products. They are designed to let the public know what Standard Oil agents, dealers, tank-wagon drivers, etc., are doing on the home front in the present war emergency.

The Standard Oil Company has been serving the people of Grenada county for many years. They began this service back in the days when coal-oil and axle grease were their principal products, when roads were bad, and when serving the rural South was difficult. In those days, we didn't have electricity, and the people depended upon the Standard Oil Company for the kerosene to light their lamps. And good weather or bad, they always managed to get this kerosene to us.

When the automobile came along, they made gasoline and motor-oil available from one end of Mississippi to the other. They've never forgotten their country friends, who were their first customers. Today, wherever we drive, we're never far from a Standard station.

The Standard Oil Company of Kentucky is a good example of a Southern business organization—of the South, for the South, and by the South—serving the people of the South with necessary products of dependability.

Little Inn Cafe Changes Hande .

Effective Monday, Mr. Tom H. Neely bought out the Little Inn on the corner of Doak and First Streets from Mr. Tommy Darras, who is going to the army.

The sale was a lock,stock and barrel proposition.

Volunteer For Red Cross Now, You Are Needed

The ladies of Grenada County are urged by the Red Cross to volunteer their services as Grey Ladies to do personal service at the Station Hospital at Camp McCain. Those interested in doing the splendid work among the sick and wounded men at the Camp, are urged to call at the local Red Cross office at the Court House yard, and ask Mrs. Jenie Lewis, secretary, for application blanks and information. The Grey Ladies organization is not to be confused with the Volunteer Corps doing recreation work now. The Grey Ladies wil receive their instruction when the class is formed. Lectures will be given on the duties and responsibilities of this branch of service. Please volunteer now.

Shangra-La War Stamp Sale Launched Here

The nation-wide Sangra-La war stamp buying campaign wasb launched here in Grenada. The object of this campaign is to raise enough money to build the mystery ship, the Sangra-La to bomb Tokyo, by tthe buying of one dollar in war stamps by EACH person in the Nation.

Mrs. D. L. Wagner and Mrs. J. J. Nichols Jr. visited Mrs. Nichol's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown in Glen Allen this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Meek and Mrs. Spivey Kent and daughter, Anne, left Tuesday for North aCrolina. Mr. and Mrs. Meek will spend their vacation in Waynesville and Mrs. Kent will vacation in Hendersonville. Anne will enter Camp Ton-a-Wanda which is a few miles out of Hendersonville.

Yes, We Were In The Wrong War

"I am enclosing a story from one of the San Antonio papers today showing how some of the soldiers and WAC's spend the week-ends around San Antonio. In this picture story I see Sgt. Blake Blount, of Grenada, Mississippi—and the fact that he has his arm around one of the WAC's—he must be the son of Capt. Jim Blount of the old 140th F. A. who enjoyed things of this kind and it must be a family characteristic.

If you ask me—I think we served in the wrong war.

With personal good wishes, I am
Sincerely,
Colin Campbell."

Hon. Dennis Murphree To Speak Here Tomorrow

Hon. Dennis Murphree, three times lieutenant governor, and a native of of sister county of Calhoun, will speak in the square here tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Tom Nelson Killed

Mr. Tom Nelson, native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, was killed on Saturday night, July 10, 1943 about midnight when enroute to Grenada from Memphis. He was general shupervisor of construction work at the Station Hospital at Camp McCain.

With him at the time of the accident was Mr. Burns the main carpenter foreman, who sustained minor injuries.

Notice To Servicemen

Servicemen who are qualified to vote may vote in person at the office of the Circuit Clerk any time between now and election day, if they are home on furlough or for other reasons.

CARD OF THANKS

We are naturally happy over our reelection without an opponent. No higher honor can be paid a state official. I pledge my continued efforts for the betterment of agricultural Mississippi. This office belongs to the people and we want them to use it.

Gratefully yours,
Sj Corley.

USO Council For Grenada Recently Organized

The USO Council for the Grenada area held its organizational meeting at the USO Club on Monday night the 12th day of July. A. J. Pellettieri, Associate USO regional representative, advised on the formation of the council and addressed the meeting on its work and aims.

The duties of the Council are twofold: to represent and interpret USO policies and services to the community and to assist in the solution of community problems as relate to the USO. The Council will supervise and coordinate the work of every USO operation and service in this area.

GOD ENCOURAGES MOSES

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 3:13-16; 4:10-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Certainly I will be with thee.—Exodus 3:12.

Encouragement is something much needed, and not too often given. The word means to put some new thing into the heart of another, that is, to hearten and assure him, especially in the bearing of a heavy responsibility.

Moses, in all probability the world's greatest military and national leader, was about to lead his people out from under the mighty hand of Pharaoh. His final preparation for that epochal deed and all the years to follow was a personal meeting with God.

Possibly it was the mistake Moses had made and which caused him to be sent into the back of the desert, that now caused him to move with—

I. Understandable Caution (Exod. 3:13).

There is something remarkably fine about real humility. It commends itself to our thinking as the proper attitude of a mortal being, particularly in the face of spiritual responsibility.

Neither God nor man dares entrust a high and difficult commission to foolish man who brusquely "rushes in where angels fear to tread." The fact that one feels fully and unhesitatingly qualified to take over such a responsibility is almost a certain indication that he is not the man to assume it.

Moses' request for God's backing must have been acceptable to Him, for He gave Moses—

II. Unlimited Authority (3:14-16).

Moses went as God's messenger. He was authorized to put all the majesty and power of the Infinite One behind his words and acts.

The ambassador must have credentials. God's representative has them. When "they shall say"—what an important and difficult situation that creates. The one who speaks for God must expect not only the scornful bitterness of God's enemies, but also the unbelieving questions of those whom he seeks to serve.

"What shall I say?" asks Moses, and God answers that he may say that "I AM" had sent him. This name of God reveals Him as the eternal, independent, self-sufficient, self-existent, immutable, personal Being. Consider, Christian brethren, whose we are and whom we serve.

But Moses seems to have been unable to see beyond his own human infirmity even in the light of such a glorious revelation, supplemented as it was by miraculous powers, and we find him showing an—

III. Unjustified Humility (4:10-13).

Perhaps we should not call this humility at all, for in one so divinely called and encouraged it was an act of unbelief and almost impertinence.

When God calls a man He knows his limitations. Why then should one plead them as an excuse for not serving? The excuse of Moses that he was not a fluent speaker has been the standby of unwilling workers all through the ages. When asked to lead a prayer meeting, teach a Sunday school class, conduct a young people's meeting, thousands upon thousands have lamely thus excused themselves and missed a blessing.

The perfect answer of God (v. 11) merits attention. God made your mouth and mine. He gives us the power of speech. He asks not the eloquence of polished rhetorical phrases, or the flights of man's imagination. He wants but the incomparable eloquence of His own words on our lips.

No man should think too highly of himself, but let him beware lest he think too lowly about God. We are not sufficient for the opportunity. But God is more than sufficient.

Having called Moses, God saw to it that Moses went on with His work, even though now He had to call in Moses' older brother to help him. It was, in fact, an—

IV. Unnecessary Substitution (4: 14-17).

Loving and patient is our God, but, mark it well, there is a boundary line to that patience. Moses went too far in his needless humility, and really reflected on the ability of God. God promptly substituted Aaron as the spokesman.

Gracious was He in thus providing a helper for Moses. But one wonders what Moses missed of blessing and power because of his slowness of heart. To decline the labor and the responsibility of service for God means loss far greater than we may ever know.

God's dealings with Moses speak eloquently to us of His willingness to enable and use a man who lacked some of the gifts for leadership. Let none of us be like Moses and become involved in needless worry about our gifts, and forget God's purpose and enabling power. When God calls, our gifts are not the controlling factor; in fact, they are not a great factor at all. The question then becomes, Is God able? Let us trust and obey Him.

Hen Has Incubator

Among the interesting birds on Guadalcanal is the brush fowl, a dark-colored bird about the size of a bantam hen. Instead of setting on her eggs, this mother bird covers them with decaying vegetation. The heat generated by the action of decomposition keeps the eggs at hatching temperature.

The incubation period lasts around 50 days—longer than for any other land bird. As a result, the young have the power of flight as soon as they are hatched.

BEAT THE HEAT
Soothe, relieve heat rash, and help prevent it with Mennen, formerly Mennen Heat Powder. Sprinkle this cooling, astringent medicated powder well over heat irritated skin. Costs little. Big savings in larger sizes. All the family will like Mennen.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Recapped tires will render satisfactory service—if the tire carcass is in good condition, good workmanship is exercised, inflation rules are observed and speed is kept to 35 mph. Have your tires recapped at a reliable shop.

Scientists have developed the fact that when a car is driven at 50 mph there is a centrifugal force of two tons trying to pull the tires apart.

That our standard of living is affected in many ways by the shortage of rubber will be appreciated when it is known that normally about 50,000 items were made with rubber.

One Bit of Tough Detail That Smith Didn't Mind

Two men worked side by side in a War Production board office. They never spoke, but each watched the other. One man left work daily at four o'clock. The other toiled on till six or later.

Some months passed. Then the harder-working of the two approached the other.

"I beg your pardon," he said, "but do you mind telling me how you can clean up your work every day at four o'clock?"

"Not at all," said the other man. "When I come to a tough piece of detail, I mark it, 'Refer to Mr. Smith.' I figure that, in a department as large as this, there is sure to be a Mr. Smith. And I must be right; those papers never come back."

The harder worker started to remove his coat.

"Brother," he said, "prepare for action. I'm Mr. Smith."

If you know a Navy man, don't ever call him a "gob"—sailors consider the name an insult. You can get on the right side of him though if you offer him a Camel—or better yet, send him a carton. Camels are the favorite cigarette with men in the Navy (Army, Marines, Coast Guard, too, for that matter) based on actual sales records from the service men's stores. And though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to men in the Navy, Marines and Coast Guard wherever they are.—Adv.

AROUND THE HOUSE

When melting chocolate, use a small round-bottomed bowl and melt over hot water. Bowl may be set in the top of teakettle or double boiler.

• • •

Water or food left in an aluminum pressure cooker pits the surface and makes it dark and rough.

• • •

Never pour water on burning fat; it spreads blaze. Extinguish blaze with flour.

• • •

Keep linens white by packing them in an old pillow case which has been soaked in bluing until it is a deep indigo.

• • •

Rub up the nickel faucets with cleansing tissues every day. Such rubbing up will lighten the weekly cleanings.

• • •

Red and yellow paints mixed together give you orange; red and blue, purple; yellow and blue, green. White paint added to any of these colors will lighten them.

• • •

Gather clover blossoms this summer, dry them, and scatter about the linen closet to impart a delicate fragrance.

• • •

Try adding a few drops of lemon juice to rice the next time you cook it. It makes the rice beautifully white and keeps the grains whole.

Green peppers used for salads are better if first parboiled. Boil the peppers for five minutes, pour off the water, then place the peppers in refrigerator until ready to use.

• • •

Earthworms are beneficial to the soil in which they live and no effort should be made to remove them. If considered troublesome, lime water will bring them to the surface.

THE CHARTER OF INCORPORATION OF GRENADA HOMES, INC.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 100 of the Code of Mississippi and pursuant to any other laws of statutes of said State governing the formation, regulations and control of corporation, do hereby certify as follows:

FIRST: The name of this corporation is

GRENADA HOMES, INC.

SECOND: The names and post office addresses of the undersigned incorporators are:

Wallace E. Johnson, 875 Rayner Street, Memphis, Tennessee.

Alma E. Johnson, 875 Rayner Street, Memphis, Tennessee

James E. McGehee, 149 Monroe, Memphis, Tennessee.

THIRD: The domicile and principal office of said corporation shall be situated in the City of Grenada, Grenada County, Mississippi.

FOURTH: The authorized capital stock of the corporation shall consist of One Hundred Fifty-Six shares of the nominal or par value of $100 per share divided as follows:

150 shares of preferred stock of the par value of $100 per share; 6 shares of common stock of the par value of $100 per share.

The designations, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations, and restrictions of each of said classes of stock are as follows:

(a) The preferred stock shall be entitled, in preference to the common stock, to dividends from the surplus or net profits of the corporation at the rate of $5.00 per share per annum, payable as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine; such dividends shall be cumulative. In the distribution of assets, other than by dividends from surplus or net profits, the preferred stock shall have a preference over the common stock until there shall have ben paid, or set apart for payment, on each share of preferred stock the sum of One Hundred (100) Dollars, plus the amount of any unpaid dividends accrued thereon, as hereinbefore provided. No share of preferred stock shall be entitled to any dividend from surplus or profits in excess of the aforesaid dividends at the rate herein set forth.

(b) Dividends may be paid upon the common stock only when dividends have been paid, or funds have been set apart for payment of dividends as aforesaid on the preferred stock, but whenever there shall have been paid or funds shall have been set aside for the payment of all such dividends upon preferred stock, dividends upon the common stock may be declared payable then or thereafter out of any surplus or net profits of the corporation then remaining. After the payment of the limited dividends or shares in distribution of assets to which the preferred stock is entitled in accordance with the provision hereinbefore set forth, the common stock alone shall receive all further dividends and shares in distribution.

(c) The holders of preferred stock shall not be entitled by reason of their holdings thereof to any voice or vote in the management of the affairs of the corporation, except that in all elections for directors or managers of the corporation, every stockholder (whether a preferred or common stockholder) shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, the number of shares of stock owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors or mangers to be elected; or to cumulate said shares so as to give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal; or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall see fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner; and provided further that in the event, at any time of any meeting of stockholders the corporation shall be in default in the payment of dividends due or accrued, on the preferred stock for the two previous years, then the holders of the stock at that time outstanding shall be entitled to the same voting powers as attached to the common stock, namely, one vote for each share of said stock issued or outstanding. Except as herein set forth, the voting power shall be confined to the holders of the common stock.

(d) The preferred stock may be redeemed in whole or in part at any time at One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each share thereof then outstanding as hereinbefore provided. If less than all of the shares of the preferred stock are to be redeemed the share to be redeemed shall be selected in such a manner as the Board of Directors shall determine. Notice of intention to redeem shares of such preferred stock shall be mailed at least thirty days before the date of redemption to each holder of record of the share to be redeemed at the last known post office address of such holder as shown by the records of the corporation.

(e) The corporation may issue and dispose of any of its shares of stock authorized by these articles or by a subsequent increase of its capital stock by amendment of these articles for such consideration and on such terms and in such manner as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors and authority so to fix such consideration, terms and manner is hereby granted by the stockholders.

FIFTH: The period of existence of the corporation shall be fifty years.

SIXTH: The purposes for which the corporation is created are as follows:

(a) To buy or otherwise acquire, lease, rent, hold, own, maintain, construct upon, improve, sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of lands, leaseholds and other interests in real and personal property.

(b) To engage generally in the real estate business including the buying, selling, renting, mortgaging, constructing and improving of real estate either in the capacity of owner or principal or in the capacity of owner or principal or in the capacity of agent for others.

(c) To buy and sell at wholesale or retail any and all kinds of building and construction materials together with all other materials of a related or kindred nature.

(d) To engage in all other transactions and to do and perform all other things necessary or convenient or intended for the attainment of any of the purposes of this corporation to the same extent as natural persons lawfully might or could do insofar as such acts are permitted to be done by a corporation organized under and pursuant to the general corporation laws of the State of Mississippi, and in general to carry on any other business in connection therewith not forbidden by the State of Mississippi together with all the powers conferred upon said corporations by the laws of the the State of Mississippi.

SEVENTH: The number of shares of each class of stock of the corporation to be subscribed and paid for in cash before the corporation commences business shall be:

(a) 150 shares of Preferrel Stock $15,000.00 cash.

(b) 6 shares of Common Stock $600.00 cash.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the said incorporators of Grenada Homes, Inc. have hereunto set our hands this 1st day of June, 1943.

Wallace E. Johnson,
Jas. E. McGehee,
Alma E. Johnson,
C. A. Camp.

STATE OF TENNESSEE,
COUNTY OF SHELBY

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County and State, duly commissioned, qualified and acting Wallace E. Johnson, Alma E. Johnson, C. A. Camp, and James E. McGehee, who acknowledged that they signed and delivered the foregoing instrument on the date and year of its date and for the purposes therein set out.

WITNESS my hand and seal of office, this 10th day of June, 1943.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
GAME AND FISH COMMISSION
JACKSON

Rules and Regulations Regarding Pollution (as adopted July 6, 1943)

ARTICLE I

1. Definitions:

The following words or phrases, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have the meaning ascribed to them as follows.

(a) "Commission" shall be construed to mean the State Game and Fish Commission, or the Director of Conservation thereof, either or both.

(b) "Establishment" shall be construed to include any industrial establishment, mill, factory, tannery, paper or pulp mill, creamery, cheese manufacturing plant, mine, quarry, and each and every other industry or plant or works in the operation of which industrial wastes are produced.

(c) "Industrial Waste" shall be construed to mean any liquid, gaseous or solid substance, animal, vegetable, or mineral, not sewage, resulting from any manufacturing or industry, except oil field wastes, as defined in Article III hereof.

(d) "Municipality" or "Municipal" shall be construed to mean any city, town, or village.

(e) 1. "Person" as used in Aritticle II hereof, shal be construed to include any municipality, industry, public or private corporation, or co-partnership, firm or any other entity whatsoeve.

2. "Person" as used in Article III hereof, shall include any corporation, co-partnership, or individual owning or operating any oil or gas well, oil booster pump, or pump used to move oil or oily fluids, storage tank, tank batery or similar equipment, oil gathering line, or other pipe line used for transporting oil, refinery, or equipment used for loading oil or oily fluids in tank cars, barges or other transportation media.

(f) "Oil field waste" as used in Article III hereof, shall include crude oil, warte oil, oil sludge, oil-water emulsion, or oil bearing mixture of any kind; salt water discharged from any oil or gas well lease; and oil or oily fluids which may escape from producing wells, oil booster pumps, pumps used to move oil or oily fluids, storage tanks, tank batteries or similar equipment, oil gathering lines or other pipe lines used for transporting oil, refinery and equipment used for loading oil or oily fluids in tank cars, barges, or other transportation media.

(g) "Pollution" shall be construed to mean the discharge of any waste or noxious or deleterious substances, which, when discharged into the waters of the State, tends to destroy fish or other aquatic life or wild or domestic animals or fowls or is injurious to the public health.

(h) "Sewage" shall be construed to include any substance that contains any of the waste products or excrementitious or other discharge from the bodies of human beings or animals.

(i) "Waters of the State" shall be construed to include rivers, streams, lakes, and all other water courses and waters within the confines of the State of Mississippi.

ARTICLE II

"Industrial Wastes"

1. No person shall place or permit to be placed, or discharged, or permit to flow, or continue to discharge or permit to flow, into any of the waters of the State any industrial wastes, except as hereinafter provided.

2. All persons who, at the time of the adoption of these regulations, are discharging industrial waste into any of the waters of the State, or permitting the same to be discharged, shall file with the Commission within thirty days of the effective date of these regulations such information, under oath, as the Commission may require with regard to such industrial waste, including the kind, character, and rate of flow therof, and any other pertinent information, relative thereof, possessed by such eprsons, and concerning the treatment works, if any, either in operation or in contemplation. The forms required by this regulation shall be prepared and furnished to such persons by the Commission, and it shall be the duty of such persons to apply to the Commission for such forms. The Commission shall, upon receipt of such information, if the same be deemed by it insufficient in any way, require of any such person any supplemental or additional information, within such time as the Commission shall determine to be reasonable. Upon receipt of such information, from any person, the Commission shall determine whether the discharge of such industrial waste constitutes pollution of any of the waters of this State. If the Commission determines that the discharge of industrial waste does not constitute pollution, it shall notify such person therof. If the Commission shall determine that the discharge of such industrial waste does constitute pollution, then the Commission shall determine what is necessary to be done by such person to eliminate such pollution, the kind and character of treatment works to be installed, and shall determine a reasonable time such person should be given to eliminate such pollution.

No person shall alter the volume of the discharge of industrial wastes, or the character thereof, existing at the time of the furnishing of the information required in this section, without the prior approval of the Commission.

3. No person shall hereafter erect, construct or open, or reopen or operate, any establishment which, in its operation, results in the discharge of industrial wastes or sewage which would flow or be discharged into any of the waters of the State and thereby cause a pollution of the same, unless such person shall first provide proper and adequate treatment works for the treatment of such industrial wastes or sewage, approved by the Commission, so that ifa nd when flowing or discharged into the waters of the effluent thereof shall not constitute pollution, except when, in the opinion of the Commission, such industrial waste does not and will not constitute pollution, and the Commission shall grant a permit for the discharge of such industrial waste into the waters of the State. Public notice of every application for a permit under this section shall be given by the applicant by notice published in a newspaper of general circulation, published in the county where the permit is applied for, once a week for four weeks. But any such permit shall be revocable or subject to modification and change by the Commission at any time thereafter upon reasonable notice, served personally or by registered mail addressed to the last known postoffice address of the holder of the permit, and the owner or operator of such establishment may be required to install treatment works, approved by the Commission, for the treatment of such industrial waste, or for the deposition of solids in such industrial waste in the manner and to the extent as the Commission may require, in order to prevent pollution.

4. All plans, designs, and revelant data for the erection and construction of treatment works hereafter by any person or municipality for the treatment of industrial vastes or sewage shall be submitted to the Commission for its approval before the works are constructed or erected. Any such construction or erection which has not been approved by the Commission by written permit, or any treatment work not maintained or operated in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission, is hereby prohibited.

5. The effective date of these regulations shall be July 10, 1943, as to "industrial wastes" and "sewage."

ARTICLE III

"Oil Field Wastes"

1. Crude oil, waste oil, oil sludge, oil-water emulsion, or oil bearing mixtures or any kind, escaping in any manner on the lease where they originate, shal be gathered and destroyed by burning or otherwise on such lease where they originate, and in such manner as to eliminate any pollution hazard to any of the waters of this State, as defined by Section (g), Article I of these regulations.

2. No oily fluids shall be discharged to or allowed to flow on the ground, or be carried from the original lease in open ditches, or discharged or allowed to flow into any of the waters of this State.

3. Each producing well, and oil booster pump, and any pump used to move oil or oily fluids, shall be provided with a surrounding gathering ditch or equally effective device, to prevent escape of oily wastes from the location, such ditch to be graded to a gathering sump, which shall be kept effectively clean by removal and destruction of oily wastes. All spillage of oil shall be promptly gathered and destroyed.

4. All storage tanks, gun barrels, tank batteries, and similar equipment shall be provided with an adequate fire wall maintained in good condition. The area inside the fire wall shall be graded to a surrounding ditch leading to a gathering sump inside the fire wall, such sump to be kept effectively clean by removal and destruction of oily wastes. In water, swamp or marsh areas, where the bilding of dikes or firewalls is impracticable, the tank battery shall be equipped with an impervious deck, surrounded with a steel gutter leading to a sump where the oil and water shall be trapped and disposed of. If, however, the owner or operator desires, he may accomplish the same purpose by any other method theretofore approved by the Commission, upon his application therefor.

5. Oil gathering lines, or any other lines, used for transporting oil, shall be regularly inspected and all leaks shall be immediately repaired. Such lines, where not underground, shall be so constructed as to prevent breakage, or strain, by the maintaining thereunder of sufficient support, and sufficient precautionary measures, against pressure thereon from falling trees, drift, water pressure, or other causes. Waste from leaks shall be collected and destroyed immediately upon discovery. Loading racks, barge-loading outlets, and similar installations shall be operated at all times with full precaution against spillage. Such installations shall be surrounded by a ditch graded to a gathering sump, or shall be provided with an impervious deck surrounded by a steel gutter leading to a sump, or with such other equipment adequate for the accomplishment of the same purpose as may be approved by the Commission. All such gathering sumps shall be kept effectively clean by removal and destruction or other safe disposal of the oily waste. After each operation of barge or tanker loading equipment, loading hose and connections shall be carefully drained, and the gathering sumps shall be emptied.

6. No salt water shall be discharged from a lease until all oily waste has been completely separated therefrom, except in cases where the transfer of such salt water from the lease to a central treating plant has been approved in writing by the Commission. Separating pits or other equally effective devices, for the separation of oily wastes from oil field brine shall be constructed and operated in such a manner that no oily waste will be carried frm the lease, except to central treating plants, and shall meet any reasonable minimum requirementts set up in any particular field or lease by the Commission. In oil field brines discharged to streams the oil content shall not exceed 30 parts per million.

7. No oil field brine shall be discharged into any stream, lake or other body of water, or into any ditch or surface drainage leading to any stream, lake, or other body of water, when it is determined by the Commission that such discharge would adversely affect the palatability of a source of potable water to an appreciable degree, or would be deleterious to the public health, or whereby any fish life, or any beneficial animal or vegetable life in said waters may be destroyed, or the growth or propagation thereof prevented or injuriously affected; provided that oil-fee brine may be discharged under maximum dilution ratios prescribed for any particular stream or field by the Commission, or during any particular period in which such discharge is determined by the Commission to be free from pollution hazard, or necessary in the public interest.

Wherever possible, disposition of oil field brine shall be accomplished by discharge through disposal wells to underground horizons below the fresh water level, such wells to be so drilled, cemented, equipped, and operated that no fresa water horizon shall be polluted; provided that this rule shall not apply in fields or areas where it shall have been theretofore determined by the Commission that disposition of the brine is or may be accomplished by discharge into water bodies normally or seasonally sufficiently saline to preclude any actual or potential pollution hazard due to such discharge.

9. These regulations shall apply to the owner and operator, if they are different persons, and it shall be the responsibility of each to see that these regulations are complied with.

10. In order that every person now discharging into the waters of this State "oil field wastes" may have a reasonable time within which to eliminate such pollutions, the Commission finds that thirty days is areasonable time within which to eliminate such existing pollutions, and as to such persons, the effective date of these regulations, relative to "oil field wastes" is August 10, 1943. As to all other persons, the effective date is July 10, 1943.

I, W. F. Dearman, Director of Conservation, of the State Game and Fish Commission, certify that he foregoing is a true and correct copy of an order pased by the Commission at its meeting on July 6, 1943, said order appearing on pages 7 to 15, inclusive, of Special Minute Book of the Commission.

WITNESS my signature and the seal of the Commission, this the 7th day of July, 1943.

W. F. Dearman,
Director of Conservation.

"Those doggoned kids!"

Give 'em a screw-driver and a pair of pliers and they'll make anything run!"★

The colonel's "kids" had come upon a broken-down French tank, abandoned before the Yanks reached North Africa. They were told it would never run again.

That was a dare to boys who loved machinery. They worked on the old tank until it grunted and lurched across the field!

The story of "those doggoned kids" is true—and so is its peculiarly American moral.

The boys sweated those extra hours, not at bayonet point, but freely—for fun and satisfaction. They saw a job to do, rolled up their sleeves, and pitched in! Call that "free enterprise," call it American initiative. Whatever you call it—it made America grow!

And that same spirit built America's electric companies. Many of the business men who manage them today were linemen, clerks, meter readers. Ordinary folks who saw a job to do, rolled up their sleeves, pitched in. . . .

Result? Better service at lower prices than ever before! The average American family gets just about twice as much electricity for its money as it did 15 years ago. And, at the same time—

These companies under experienced business management are supplying over 80 per cent of America's wealth of electric power! Power for war production. Far more power than in all the Axis countries combined!

McCORMICK-TOWNES

A prominent event of the week was the marrige of Miss Ayls Townes of this city, daughter of Mrs. Edward Meek Townes of Grenada, Miss., and late Mr. Townes, to Lt. William Elward McCormick, Air Transport Command, Army of the United States, son of Mrs. Nan B. McCormick of Grenada, Miss.

The wedding was held in the Christ Episcopal Church on Thursday evening, with the Rev. Samuel Orr Capers officiating. The chapel was decorated with pink and white dahlias and illuminated with white tapers. Mrs. Edward Barker played the nuptial selections.

Mrs. John D. Heald of San Marcos was the bride's only attendant, and Lt. McCormick's best man was Maj. Heald. Mrs. Heald wore a rose crepe tailored frock with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The bride wore a two-piece dress trimmed at the neck line with double ruffles. Her pale pink hat was adorned with veiling, and her corsage was of gardenias.

A reception was held in the home of Mrs. Eugene Kurtz for members of the wedding party and the immediate family following the ceremony. The rooms were decorated with fern and Marconi daisies.

— San Antonio Evening News

Lt. and Mrs. McCormick arrived in Grenada Tuesday afternoon after spending their honeymoon at Point Clear, Ala., with his uncle, Mr. C. E. Barwick. They are guests here of their mother, Mrs. Nan McCormick.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Nan McCormick received guests at her home in honor of her son and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. McCormick.

The reception rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion and a large wedding cake cut by the newlyweds was served with cream to approximately twenty guests, the young friends who form the social set of Grenada.

PICNIC SUPPER

On Saturday evening of last week a group of young people enjoyed a delightful picnic supper at Bledsoe's well. Those present were Misses Annie Anderson, Ethel George Nichols Ruth Swetland, Cyrus Faliness, Warren Black and Gregory Michael.

Mrs. John Bradley entertained her bridge club members on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ralph King of Monroe was one of the non-members present.

Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Henry Ray Jr. and the twins arrived Wednesday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ray.

ALL SAINTS AUXILIARY

During the summer months of July and August the Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal Church meets on the first Monday of the month. Because of an accepted holiday on the 5th, the Auxiliary met this past Monday, July 12th. The group met at the home of Mrs. L. J. Doak. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, president, presided. Mrs. C. S. Liles led the devotional and Mrs. W. J. Sherwood, secretary, reviewed the minutes of last meeting.

Following the reading of several communications pertaining to Auxiliary work, a business discussion followed. Mrs. Carter, wife of Col. Carter was a most welcome visitor. Meeting closed with bendiction.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Three tables were arranged for bridge games at the home of Mrs. H. W. Baker on Tuesday afternoon when club members and several extra guests assembled for games.

Lovely garden flowers added a festive note to the reception rooms and screened porch.

As the guests arrived delicious Lotus cream with chicken salad sandwiches were served.

Non-member guests present included Mrs. John Salmon, of Chicago, Miss Lida Coffman and Mrs. E. R. Proudfit.

Friends will learn with regret of the death of Lt. Corley's mother at her home in Washington, D. C. Lt. Corley left Tuesday morning to attend the funeral. Mrs. Carley has just returned from the East as she had taken their young son to a boy's camp in Connecticut.

HERE'S THE WAY IT IS WITH RAILROAD TRAVEL THESE DAYS:

MORE Americans will travel more miles by railroad this year than ever before in our history.

Those who must travel are going about your business. They include men and women in uniform, traveling in organized groups, to the number of two million a month. They include other uniformed millions traveling as individuals on regularly scheduled trains. And uncounted civilians whose travel is related to the war effort.

On the Illinois Central alone, passenger traffic is two and a half times what it was two years ago—five and a half times what it was ten years ago.

There are only 6800 sleeping cars in the United States. More than half of them are assigned to military service. There are only 17,500 coaches. A third of these are no longer available for civilian use. And there will be no more until after the war.

That is why—to our mutual regret—those who must travel find some stations overtaxed, some trains overcrowded, and accommodations sometimes hard to get.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL SYSTEM

"It's just as important to save travel facilities as it is to save food . . . and other things needed for the war."—Joseph B. Eastman, Director, Office of Defense Transportation.

Mississippi Farmers Know The Truth

I'M VOTING FOR MIKE CONNER BECAUSE HE EXEMPTED THE FARMERS' CATTLE, HORSES, MULES, PLOWS, EQUIPMENT, AND HOUSEHOLD GOODS FROM ALL TAXES WHEN HE WAS GOVERNOR FROM 1932 TO 1936
SURE MIKE DID AND WHEN HE IS ELECTED GOVERNOR THIS TIME HE'LL GIVE US A REAL MARKETING PROGRAM SO THAT WE CAN GET TOP PRICES FOR OUR PRODUCTS.
VOTE FOR MIKE
WHEN MIKE SAYS HE WILL YOU CAN DEPEND ON IT!

MIKE CONNER
CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR
MISSISSIPPI

MIKE CONNER—Governor from 1932 to 1936—had the courage to fight for justice and relief for the farmer. The Conner Administration reduced the state tax on farms and farm homes from 8 to 4 mills; exempted all livestock, farming tools and household goods from ALL taxation; started homestead tax exemption; repealed the road tax which required payment of $5 or five days work on the public road; passed Mississippi's first old age assistance program; and passed the first state laws making electric power available on farms and in rural communities.

MIKE CONNER has operated his own farm for 20 years. He knows the farmers' problems. When Mike Conner becomes Governor of Mississippi in January, 1944, he will call together representative farmers, dairymen and stockmen and they will work out a practical marketing program that will make agriculture a sound business and bring prosperity to all Mississippians.

If I Were A Cartoonist . . .

If I were a cartoonist I would draw four cartoons, each of which showed old Mother Mississippi with a hand filled with peachtree switches, and with the woodshed nearby.

In the first I would have good old Mother Mississippi with her little boy Dinner$ Murfy by the ear. She would be leading Dinner$ to the woodshed and, as she went, would be telling him, "Now, Dinner$, you know I tried to raise you right. I have honored you repeatedly and from my substance has come to you a modest fortune without work. You want to be Governor of Mississippi. I will not stand for it. You brought disgrace upon my name when you sold that land (belonging to poor farmers, white and black) to bell hops, chambermaids and employees of the Wall-fall Ho-tell. While you may have had the technical right to sell this land for a song to these hotel employees, you certainly were raised to know that you had no moral right to do so. Come with me to the woodshed."

In the second I would have old Mother Mississippi with her little boy, Le$$er Franklin by the ear. While leading him to the woodshed, she would admonish him, "Now, Le$$er, I tried to raise you right. I done my best for you. But you got mixed up with that bad little boy Billybow and with the $80,000.00 and you have not YET explained it. Come with me to the woodshed."

In the third, I would have old Mother Mississippi with Tom Bailey by the ear, leading him toward the woodshed and admonishing him, "Tommie, my boy, you have been a pretty good little boy. You have led in prayer. You have taught Sunday School. You have gone to prayer meetings. But, Tommie, do you remember back in 1939 when you permitted one of your followers to state repeatedly something that you denied after it was too late to deny it, and, in the meantime, you received a telegram EVERY day from the one on whom the tale was told, asking you to deny it, deny it, deny it. What person or persons, Tommie, influenced you to delay that denunciation of this falsehood until the harm was done? Aren't you your own boss, Tommie? Come with me to the woodshed where you will be punished for omission."

In the fourth, I would have old Mother Mississippi with one hand on little Mike's head and an arm around his waist. She would be saying to Mike, "Mike, my son, I am proud of you. You have lost many times, but you have kept the faith. You came home to find me in rags, deep in debt, with my checks being hawked about and no flour, sugar, lard and snuff in the kitchen. You pulled off your coat and went to work. You restored my institutions of higher learning to a respectful place among their sister institutions in the South. You paid my debts, filled my kitchen with food, you created a system by which I have lived well for twelve long years; you relieved your farmer brothers from taxes on their mules, cattle, wagons, etc.; you gave your indigent and old brothers and sisters the FIRST assistance they ever received from me; you went over to the penitentiary and listened to the tales of my children, many of whom had been buried alive there. You paved the way for homestead exemptions by putting my affairs on a business basis. You did great things with a bankrupt treasury. What can you do with $14,000,000 surplus? Come into the kitchen and get some milk and a piece of pie."

Do YOUR Part

If each person in the United States will buy ONLY one dollar's worth of war stamps, the aggregate amount from these sales will permit the United States government to build the mystery ship—Shangi-La—with which to bomb Tokyo. Mrs. E. L. Wilkins and her associates are working hard to get this message to the people of Grenada and Grenada County, and are endeavoring to see that EACH person in this City and County buys his or her dollar's worth. It was Mrs. Wilkins and her associates who, within an hour, raised the money for the paid advertisement which appears in this issue of the GCW.

YOU are not restricted to ONE dollar's worth of securities. Buy all you can, for the government needs a constant stream of money to finance this costly war.

Due to the huge spending of the contractors, the soldiers and the air men in this area, Grenada people are rolling in money far beyond the people of most communities in Mississippi, many making three or four times the amount they normally make.

Surely Grenada County people will do their part—and more—in this gigantic drive to launch a ship that will be instrumental in blasting those little yellow devils in Tokyo from the face of the earth.

Mr. Lowry Makes A Speech

In his spech Saturday, Mr. Lowry, seeking re-election as Highway Commissioner, sought to explain why he had permitted the Cain Creek bridge, a mile west of Holcomb, to remain collapsed and useless in the bed of the creek. Our two county lawyers contend that the bridge is the responsibility of the Highway Department. Mr. Lowry says that Greek Rice, the Attorney General, says the bridge is the responsibility of the board of supervisors. It's two lawyers (either just as good as old "take it easy Greek) against one. In the meantime, the public which uses No. 7 State Highway has to consume gasoline needlessly by using a four or five mile detour through the hills. I wonder if Mr. Lowry and the other highway commissioners, past and present, have always been so punctillious about technicalities. I imagine they, like the supervisors here and elsewhere, forget technicalities and go ahead and use common sense. I know when I was supervisor I never did worry about technicalities when something should, in my opinion, be done for the public welfare.

Then, in the course of Mr. Lowry's speech, he spoke of his chief engineer—a grand man, no doubt—whom he secured from Tennessee, and the question at once arose in my mind whether State College had abandoned its engineering department. If State departments do not use graduates of State College, we might as well close it up.

If it had not been for Mike Conner's administration, farmers would be paying taxes on mules, wagons, cattle and tools.

We are happy to acknowledge receipt of a renewal from Mrs. Andrew Knight, of Holcomb.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.
To: Beatrice Taylor, 715 Pennsylvania Street, Memphis, Tennessee:

You are summoned to appear before the Chancery Court of the County of Grenada, in said State, on the Second Monday of September, A. D. 1943 to defend the suit No. 5704 in said court of Lonnie Taylor, wherein you are a defendant.

This the 10th day of July, A. D. 1943.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Statement From J. P. Coleman

TO THE PEOPLE OF GRENADA COUNTY:

The regular term of Circuit Court convenes at Louisville, Winston County, on Monday, July 12th. I am very sorry that this will make it impossible for me to attend many of the political gatherings scheduled for next week. It will likewise hinder my efforts to see the people personally. The fourth week in July I will have the same situation when Circuit Court convenes at Grenada.

I have not been able to make a close campaign. I know that you would not want me to allow political considerations to cause me to neglect official duties, so I have stayed on the job, day or night, but have made as many speeches and have talked with as many citizens as available time would permit.

I am humbly grateful to you for your past support, and will take advantage of this brief announcement to state:

1. I am asking for an endorsement term, based on my record of service. The people are familiar with the type of service I have rendered.
2. Therefore, I am not running for re-election on the demerits of my opponent, if he has any, and none of my mistakes or demerits will qualify him for the job.
3. I am now qualified by experience to make you a better district attorney than ever before.
4. I believe the people are too intelligent to place any confidence in last minute charges that may be made by my opposition in an effort to discredit me and incidentally help them.
5. I shall gratefully appreciate your support and influence.

Respectfully yours,

MISSISSIPPI'S OLD FOLKS KNOW THE TRUTH

I'M VOTING FOR MIKE CONNER BECAUSE HE PUT THROUGH THE STATE'S FIRST OLD AGE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM WHILE HE WAS GOVERNOR FROM 1932 TO 1936.
SURE MIKE DID AND WHEN HE'S ELECTED GOVERNOR THIS TIME HE'LL SEE THAT OUR OLD PEOPLE, DEPENDENT CHILDREN, THE BLIND AND CRIPPLED GET A SQUARE DEAL
VOTE FOR MIKE
WHEN MIKE SAYS HE WILL YOU CAN DEPEND ON IT!

MIKE CONNER was the first governor of Mississippi to ask the legislature to do anything about relief for our old people, our dependent children, the blind and crippled. While governor he advocated and his administration enacted the state's first old age assistance program. This was in the depth of the depression.

When MIKE CONNER becomes governor in January, 1944, he will do everything in his power, in cooperation with the Federal Government, to increase the assistance to the old people, those afflicted with incurable diseases, the blind and others to a decent level. No honest man can do or will promise to do more! MIKE CONNER says: "Thirty dollars per month is not too much!"

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Entire Pacific War Strategy Changed By Latest Allied Attacks in Solomons; RAF and U. S. Air Force Rock Europe With New Series of Non-Stop Bombings

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Troops in Maj. Gen. Sanderford Jarman's anti-aircraft artillery command receive alert warning of approaching planes in practice drill and are about to release barrage balloon. Besides forcing enemy planes to high altitudes thereby affecting bombing efficiency, barrage balloons' cables are strong enough to destroy any craft striking them.

MacARTHUR ATTACKS:
Advance in Pacific

Under cover of bursting shells and strong aerial formations, American forces in the South Pacific strengthened their hold on the Solomon islands and opened up another front against the Japanese in New Guinea.

Protected by big guns of the navy and a protective canopy thrown across the skies by fighter planes, U. S. troops scored a surprise landing on Rendova and New Georgia islands in the Solomons, and soon were shelling the big Jap air base on Munda.

To the west, American units swarmed ashore on the Huon gulf of New Guinea, and soon were advancing toward the important Japanese position at Salamaua, already menaced by an Allied force which had hacked its way through the jungle to within 12 miles of the outpost.

Between these two theaters of operation, American forces occupied the Woodlark and Trobriand islands without opposition.

More than 100 Japanese planes were shot down resisting the American landings. Our own losses were 17, along with a 7,000 ton transport and several other ships damaged in the dangerous reedy waters of the Solomons.

FOOD SUBSIDIES:
Banned by Congress

The administration's plans for the use of subsidies to "roll back" retail food prices were strongly jolted by congressional action in passing the Commodity Credit corporation bill outlawing such payment except as incentives to producers. As a result, the "rollbacks" recently instituted on meat and butter would be wiped out, with payments only being made on previous commitments.

In passing the bill, congress acted in opposition to administration support of the subsidy program. Prior to passage, the War Labor board came out for "rollbacks" to offset the increasing cost of living, which threaten its policy of limiting wage boosts to 15 per cent over January, 1941.

In passing the bill which extends the life of the CCC for two more years and adds 750 million dollars to its lending authority, congress permitted payment of 150 million dollars for subsidizing increased transportation costs and the production of critical minerals and food.

CHINA:
Press Japs Back

See-saw warfare in China continued, with Chinese forces recapturing a large section of Owchihkow on the Yangtze river, thus driving the Japanese further out of the great rice bowl which they had threatened to overrun.

Assisting the Chinese in their successful counterattack was the American air force, which has been established in the southeast of China. Under leadership of Gen. Claire Chennault, the Yanks have been concentrating on Japanese locomotives, freight trains and other heavy equipment which the enemy finds most difficult to replace.

Japanese attacks near Shanghai and Swatow were also checked, with Chinese troops regaining several important points at Swatow, once famous treaty port on the Kwangtung coast.

EUROPE:
Clearing a Path

Europe rocked from all sides as British and American air squadrons continued pounding vital Axis industries, installations and airdromes.

Nowhere did the Axis find rest. British bombers flew into Germany's Ruhr to strike at the already badly battered industrial centers, and even while the blockbusters and incendiaries plummeted roofward, the Nazis Munitions Minister Walter Speers complained that Axis workmen were compelled to labor in the open in many places.

In the Mediterranean American Flying Fortresses, accompanied by Lightning fighters, struck at airfields in Sicily, apparently striving to cripple bases from which Axis craft could oppose Allied landing expeditions.

Off to the east, American bombers began lambasting Axis airdromes and installations in Greece, along the route an Allied army might take to invade the Balkans. In anticipating a major Allied drive in this direction, the Axis reported fortification of mountain passes along the whole rugged Grecian coast.

HOGS:
Flood Market

With principal markets flooded with heavy receipts, prices on hogs dropped and government and industry representatives appealed to farmers to restrict shipments.

Although the government had promised to support prices for 240 to 270 pound pigs at $13.75, hogs of this weight brought less as a result of the large receipts. It was explained packers lacked the labor to handle such huge supplies.

Prices for hogs over the 270 pound weight sagged as the government made no commitment to prop returns at the $13.75 mark. The action was seen as a move to induce farmers to market pigs at lighter weights to relieve the critical corn situation, which continued to plague processors and manufacturers, who said they would be compelled to seriously restrict operations unless further grain was forthcoming.

GAS:
Tight Pinch

Completion of the big oil pipe line in the Middlewest and declining petroleum production in California might well spell a tightening of gasoline supplies in those sections within the near future, Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes declared. At the same time, Ickes could see no relief in the gasoline situation in the East.

In all cases, Ickes said, the services' huge consumption of petroleum is digging deeply into the nation's supply. Ickes cited Lieut. Gen. Somervell's estimate that military demands now approximate 1,000,000 barrels a day, exclusive of gasoline and lubricating products, while American refining capacity stands at 3,650,000 barrels.

Completion of the big pipe line in the Middlewest, Ickes said, will free many tank cars for haulage of oil from the area east of the Mississippi. However, Ickes pointed out, it is this area which is suffering from a decline in production, and further diversion of its supplies necessarily will result in a further pinch in civilian consumption there.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

RICKENBACKER: Capt. Edward Rickenbacker visited the Russian front while on an official mission to Moscow for the secretary of war.

MILK: Synthetic milk, made of vegetable oils, was pronounced an unsatisfactory substitute by the two government experts. The artificial product failed to stimulate growth and development properly in feeding tests.

CORNSTARCH: Corn refineries are facing shutdowns because of insufficient supply of corn, executives of the industry warn. Only about 5 million bushels are believed to be available to processors for the year.

SERVICE: A law making almost all adult men and women subject to wartime service wherever needed, is being urged by Rep. Wadsworth of New York.

Who's News This Week

Consolidated Features.—WNU Release.

NEW YORK.—A quickie poll, maybe all wrong, indicates that radio cowboys scribble most of this nation's regional ballads. Of course, they get help from Chicago hillbillies and any Bronx troubadour able to tear a minor chord from a glittering guitar and sing through the nose at the same time.

Mexican Legate Is A Balladeer of Note, Soldier and Doctor

In Mexico such compositions are written by artists of more stature. Some have been done, to wide and lengthy applause, by that country's ambassador to Washington.

The Mexicans call them corridos. Dr. Francisco Castillo Najera concedes, however, that they are usually about kidnapings, floods, untimely deaths and blighted love. And what else do the static cow-pokes wail about?

Not that Castillo Najera wails. A former Honorary President of the Association of Mexican artists, he is highfalutin'. "My idea has been more or less to stylize the corrido," is the way this diplomat explains the situation.

If the ambassador hasn't stylized lately the omission is understandable. He has had lend-lease to ferry over the Rio Grande del Norte and a slather of other interests. He is a surgeon, a public health expert and an army officer who survived heavy shooting to rise from major to major general. And he is a widely saluted prose writer, a Latinist and an expert in the Chinese language. (Maybe he is Mexico's answer to John Kieran.)

The ambassador picked up Chinese on his first diplomatic job 20 years ago. Later he served in France, Sweden, Belgium and fallen Austria.

Rewards he has received from his government and others include enough decorations to cover him from chin to brisket.

The Najera family hails from ancient Durango and the ambassador grew up there with nine brothers and sisters. A favorite uncle, a doctor, influenced him to study medicine.

He is a big man now, with a shock of white hair, who climbs any old way into clothes that cost so much they deserve a valet's tender care. For the sake of his sensitive innards he smokes a specially treated tobacco, and uses a cigarette holder longer than any you'll see at the White House. For the sake of his figure he is still grim about setting-up exercises. He doesn't rise for these until eight o'clock in the morning; but, on the other hand, he doesn't sit down to dinner until after eight in the evening.

Dinner is apt to be an event. He is a famed host, conversationalist and connoisseur of beer as well as a pretty good cook. After dinner he likes slam-bang bridge.

Madame Ambassador is a painter in her own right, but busy now as president of the Latin-American division of the Red Cross in Washington. There are four children. One son is interning; one is studying music, and the other one is a military cadet. Their daughter is married.

Whether the ambassador composed a corrido for her is not on record. But why not?

Prof Tells Airmen Weather Is Tojo's Most Helpful Ally

AT NEW YORK'S own City College heavy-set Dr. John Hastings is sometimes the senior class' pick for "most brilliant professor." This preference adds point to his warning that Flying Fortresses will have no picnic planting their huge block-busters around Japan.

The weather there, says the professor, backing up the view of the chief of the United States weather bureau that weather is war's most important factor, will be on Tojo's side. Japan has lots of rain, lots of clouds on almost any day you may wish to pick.

The professor should know. He has charted rainfall and related items the world over. Climate is a favorite topic of his when he teaches economic, anthropological and all the other kinds of geography at City College.

Not long ago he made a climatic and topographical map for every one of the 48 states. For reasons of his own he held off the making of Montana's till last, a selective slight which has never been satisfactorily explained to that state's proud, and often gun-totin' citizens.

Professor Hastings has a deep grudge against Hitler. He says the latter's antics have cut off this country's normal supply of superior map paper. Grumbling, he takes what paper he can get and makes it serve better by using an ink mixed according to his own secret process.

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Precious Salt

We have been told, that many years ago, while the Indians still had the OLD DEAL, and white men were few and far between, that the Indians would travel many miles to build a settlement near a Salt deposit---they would even fight other Tribes to gain possession of Salt for their people and stock. Yes! It's something of the SEEMINGLY simple thing in life that do us the most good.

Victory Gardens

Today with fewer farmers, less acreage and millions more to be fed, we are faced with a serious shortage of food. Victory Gardening and home canning are the only solution.

Salt Hits The Spot

Salt is an essential ingredient in canning of pickles, corn, beans, peas, tomatoes and practically all vegetables. Millions of home-makers will can their own vegetables this year for the first time and they will want to do it right,

VICTORY GARDEN HOME CANNING SALT

JEFFERSON ISLAND Canning Salt is better, because regular Table Salt is treated to prevent caking and lumping so that it will pour freely through Salt Shaker. This treatment is harmless, but causes a cloudy brine which spoils the appearance of canned vegetables, VICTORY GARDEN Home Canning Salt is pure Flake Salt, contains no chemicals to prevent lumping and consequently makes a clear brine. We have a supply of this Salt in ten pound cloth bags. If any is left over from canning, it is ideal for cooking and baking

Beware the Whispering Campaign!

Such as: "Lowry will not carry his home county." It was whispered in the 1939 campaign

Look at the 1939 Returns:

| | Lowry | Linker |
|---|---|---|
| Chickasaw County (Lowry's Home County) | 2485 | 910 |
| Lafayette County (Linker's Home County) | 1436 | 2313 |

The Home Folks Know You Best

Linker Only Carried One Precinct out of 20 in Lowry's Home County ⟷ Lowry Carried 12 out of 25 or one-half of the precincts in Linker's Home County

WHEN T. J. LOWRY OPENED HIS 1943 CAMPAIGN IN HIS HOME TOWN OF HOUSTON ON FRIDAY NIGHT, JUNE 11TH, HE HAD ONE OF THE LARGEST CROWDS EVER TO ATTEND A POLITICAL RALLY IN CHICKASAW COUNTY. ALL HOME FOLKS. CHICKASAW COUNTY WILL GIVE LOWRY AN EVEN LARGER VOTE IN 1943.

CAST YOUR BALLOT ACCORDING TO THE FACTS AND THE RECORD. DO NOT BE MISLED BY ELEVENTH HOUR RUMORS, INSINUATIONS AND FALSE REPORTS. THEY FAILED IN THE 1939 CAMPAIGN AND THEY WILL FAIL AGAIN IN 1943.

CONSIDER THE RECORD AND VOTE TO RE-ELECT
